Read-a-palooza! Join the reading fun February 6 - March 4, 2023!

Marion County Public Library System and Early Learning Coalition of Marion County (ELCMC) co-host this annual, fun-filled reading event for children ages 12 and younger!

Beginning February 6, stop by any of the nine county library locations to pick up a reading log. Each week, through March 4, participants track their reading progress at library.marionfl.org and can visit a Marion County Public Library System location to receive a weekly prize! Participants will also be entered to win a Grand Prize given away at each library branch.

This annual event encourages and rewards families for reading aloud together, one of the best ways to prepare children for lifelong learning success. The ELCMC is honored to partner with the Marion County Public Library System, and other community partners, to bring awareness and enthusiasm to little readers and their families across Marion County.

This year's prizes are very exciting and we look forward to seeing the participation grow! For future announcements related to this event, please LIKE and follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ELCMarion and on Instagram @ELCMarion.

For more information on this event, and March Seuss-a-palooza events, please visit library.marionfl.org or call the ELCMC at (352) 369-2315.

HEART OF FLORIDA HEALTH CENTER APPOINTS NEW CEO

Heart of Florida Health Center, (HFHC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Matt Clay as Chief Executive Officer. He will assume responsibilities on February 6, 2023 and will succeed Jamie Ulmer.

He was employed with the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians for 8 years as Training and Development Specialist, Director of Information Technology and later as Executive Director of Pokagon Health Services, prior to his current CEO position. His current FQHC has 11 centers with 325 staff members, 115,000 patient visits annually, and a $37MM budget.

Matt is currently the CEO of Eastern Shore Rural Health System, Inc. in Onancock, Virginia. He is originally from Michigan and received his Bachelor of Science Degree-Industrial Technology Education Degree and Master of Science- Education Technology Degree from Western Michigan University.

"We conducted a nationwide search and we have hired an outstanding Chief Executive Officer. I want to thank the Search Committee and I also want to especially thank Maria Torres, our Interim CEO, and our Executive Team for their leadership, dedication, and diligence throughout this process," said Randy Klein, Board Chairman.

"The process has been thorough and with this organization's best interests in mind." states Maria Torres, Interim CEO. "Matt possesses a unique skill set that aligns well with HFHC's needs and future goals." "I look forward to working alongside Matt as COO and with the Executive Team to help guide us into the next phase and future. Our potential is excellent, our staff is outstanding, and I expect to continue to see great things from this organization." said Torres.

"It is an absolute pleasure to be joining Heart of Florida Health Center as its new CEO," Clay states. "I am delighted to have been the selected candidate. More than anything, I am excited to have this opportunity to be part of the HFHC team. It is a privilege to join such an extraordinary organization, with such a dedicated board, executive team, and staff that cares so deeply about our mission...serving the people of Marion County and beyond."

Matt and his wife Julia have five wonderful children.
